Consent Form for Use of Submitted Assignments and Lesson Plans for Research Purposes

Purpose of the Consent:
This consent form is to seek your permission for the use of all submitted assignments and lesson plans you create during your coursework. The faculty may use these materials for research purposes, including but not limited to, academic publications, presentations, and studies aimed at improving educational practices. This consent is granted for a period of ten (10) years past your graduation date.

What May Be Used:
Any assignments, lesson plans, and other academic work submitted as part of your coursework may be included in the research. Personal identifiers will be removed to ensure confidentiality, and your work will be anonymized in any public or academic dissemination of the research findings.

Duration of Consent:
The consent you provide will be valid for a term of ten (10) years from your graduation date. After this period, any continued use of your materials will require further consent.

Confidentiality:
Your anonymity will be maintained throughout the research process. The materials used will not be linked to your name or any other personal identifiers in any publications, presentations, or reports. Only the faculty and authorized researchers will have access to the original materials.

Voluntary Participation:
Your participation is voluntary. You have the right to decline to give consent without any negative consequences. If you choose to participate and later change your mind, you may withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the faculty below. Any materials already used in research before the withdrawal of consent will remain part of the research.

Contact Information:
If you have any questions or concerns about this consent form or the research, please contact Dr. Heather Schock at hschock@ut.edu.

Consent:
I, _____ (print name), understand and agree to the use of my submitted assignments, lesson plans, and academic work for research purposes as described above. I understand that my consent is voluntary and that I may withdraw it at any time.
Signature: _____
Date: _____